

Contractor Scholarship Program Announcement

Our company is a member of the Virginia Transportation Construction Alliance (VTCA). This year the VTCA Contractor members will offer a new college scholarship for employees, spouses and dependent children of people who work for member companies like ours. This new scholarship will provide up to $4,000 for deserving men and women.

The criteria for selection include academic performance (a GPA of at least 2.0 on a 4.0 scale is required), extracurricular and leadership activities and an interest in some area of the transportation industries.

This is a great opportunity for deserving and qualified people. For a full package of information, call Stephanie Rusnak at the Virginia Transportation Construction Alliance in Richmond, (804) 330-3312. You can also obtain an application package by written or e-mail request or by downloading the information from http://vtcaonline.com/about_vtca/programs/vtca_programs_and_scholarships/.
